SHIPBUILDING WILL BE GOVERNMENT'S HEAVY LOSSES.

WASHINGTON, November 21.
President Harding, in a message to the joint session of Congress, declared the passage of the ship subsidy bill was imperative if the government was to be able to build ships to meet the needs of the country. He pointed out that the government had lost $20,000,000 in the construction of ships for the navy, and that the government was now faced with the task of building ships for the merchant marine.

President Harding estimated that the government would cover the cost of the ship subsidy bill. He pointed out that the government had lost $20,000,000 in the construction of ships for the navy, and that the government was now faced with the task of building ships for the merchant marine.

"BALLO IN MASCHERO."

ANOTHER ITALIAN OPERA SUCCESS.

The Grand Italian Opera Company gave themselves away in the Theatre Royal last night when they confirmed a suspicion which arose with their very first performance here. This suspicion was less supported by the opera they have hitherto given, since most of them were staged with skill that made them really dramatic art to music. Last night, however, the piece presented was one of Verdi's less expert work in the dramatic sense and the company in the first act was compelled to sing less among themselves and more at the audience. This is what gave them away, for it was now definitely clear that they were not going to the audience at all. They were merely giving the audience a show.

"Ballo in Maschera" ("Masked Ball") was the opera the company gave last night, and it in the first act it lacked dramatic setting. Verdi's beautiful music was ample compensation, while the second act and still more the final third act were equal to Verdi's best art, both musically and dramatically. The better known number, including the famous "Bella addormentata" and the "Saper vorrete" and the splendid, concerted numbers were received with special favour. Mr. Scaramuzza, who played the very role with the scene for dramatic power, sang magnificently as the

ARMS CASES.

FIVE YEARS FOR OFFENDERS.

Tang Man pleaded guilty at the Criminal Sessions to-day to having been unlawfully in possession of a loaded revolver and was sentenced by Mr. Justice Gompertz to five years imprisonment with hard labour. The prisoner told His Honour that he was asked to take the revolver to a steam launch. There was a previous conviction against him for larceny and it was mentioned that a fool of brass wire, such as robbers might use, was found upon him by the police.

Shanghai papers record the death of Mr. Otto F. Smith, assistant manager of the Tobacco Products Corporation. Death occurred very early on Wednesday. Mr. Smith was succumbing at the General Hospital after only three days' illness from spinal meningitis. He was a native of Richmond, Virginia, and was very well known in Masonic circles.

Mrs. Delella was vivacious as the young Oscar, and Mrs. Vozzani, tunefully, as the negroes' songleader number, including the famous "Bella addormentata" and the "Saper vorrete" and the splendid, concerted numbers were received with special favour. ERSHINE CHILDREN'S SENTENCE.

CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTION RAISED.

LONDON, November 21.
The hearing of the application for habeas corpus in the Dublin case of Ersine Children has been adjourned until to-morrow.

The Master of Rolls said a most interesting constitutional question was raised by the contention of the children counsel that the resolutions of the Provisional Parliament establishing the military courts were illegal without an act of Parliament confirmed by the King.

JAPANESE ROBBED.

A WANCHAI OBIME.

Charged with having been one of a gang who set upon a Japanese and robbed him of $90 and the hat he was wearing, Yeung Kan was produced at the Criminal Sessions this morning before Mr. Justice Gompertz and a jury consisting of Messrs. N. MacArthur, J. J. Farmer and Chin Kany.

Outlining the case to the jury, the Crown Solicitor (Mr. H. R. Holmes) said that the robbery took place on October 14, at about 10.30 in the morning. The man who was robbed kept a provision store in Hurd Street, Wanchai, and was returning there, after making some purchases, when three men set upon him in a back lane. One of the three was the prisoner. After taking $90 out of the man's pocket and the hat from off his head the robbers ran away and the Japanese went to get his assistant to help him catch them. On the way to the No. 2 Police Station he encountered the prisoner. The recognition was mutual and the prisoner turned and ran. The Japanese chased him calling out "This!" and a constable on duty outside the police station took Yeung Kan into custody. At the Magistrate's the prisoner claimed that he stole anything. He said that the man because other people in the street were running.

After looking the evidence the jury brought in a verdict of guilty and the prisoner was sentenced to five years.

WE CORDIALLY SOLICIT YOUR ENQUIRIES

The sudden and startling "Suicide" piracy, with its sensational details, has given dramatic impetus to a problem which has plagued Hongkong's public opinion since the war.

Excavations in connection with the new drainage system are in progress on Racecourse Road, Tientsin. The other day, when a trench was being dug, the workmen discovered a large lump of iron ore, and that same was being given off as they dug. A foreigner who proceeded to the spot and turned over the soil with a spade was surprised to find it burst into flames. In the darkness the bottom of the trench is phosphorescent. Various theories as to the cause of the phenomenon have been suggested. The Chinese explanation appears to be either that the ground is devil-infested, or that there are inadvertently trodden on the iron regions, says the Peking and Tientsin Times.

UNLAWFUL ARMS.

BUSINESS STILL BRISK.

REVOLVER IN THERMOS FLASK.

In spite of the vigilance of the Police and Revenue Officers, the illicit traffic in arms continues. The China Mail learns that yesterday afternoon Detective Inspector Han Heng seized in a junk lying off the Praya a number of sacks of arms and ammunition, mostly of American make. A number of rifles, machine guns, revolvers and about 70,000 rounds of ammunition were discovered.

During the week-end, Revenue Officer Langan discovered 56 revolvers, 1,400 cartridges and a quantity of accessories lying on the Kowloon Wharf. The contraband had been landed from the s.s. "President Cleveland" and was awaiting the arrival of the King Edward Hotel launch, the packages evidently being intended for delivery to some person staying at the Hotel. Shek Cheung took, unemployed, and Lam Pin, a seaman were charged before Mr. R. E. Lindell in connection with the seizure and were remanded to the 24th inst. when the case will be heard at 2.15 p.m. Both defendants were granted bail of $5,000 each. Mr. Leo d'Almada a Castro is appearing for the defence.

Detective Sergeant Andrew of the Water Police made another seizure on board the s.s. "President McKinley" shortly after her arrival. Eight revolvers and 1,000 rounds of ammunition were found in some luggage. No claimants have come forward for the packages. A Chinese passenger on this ship was charged before Mr. J. R. Wood with being in unlawful possession of one revolver which was found by a Chinese detective in a thermos flask. The man at first admitted ownership of the flask but later denied all knowledge. Mr. Wood discharged the defendant on the ground of insufficient evidence and the revolver was confiscated.

Before the China Mail left San Francisco, Customs officers seized on board her, fifteen machine guns and 10,000 rounds of ammunition which were probably intended for Hongkong. The s.s. "China" received a wireless message regarding the discovery.

CRUELTY TO CHICKENS

POLICE COURT CHARGES FAIL.

Two cases of cruelty to fowls brought at the instance of Inspector Fred Fisher, of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, were heard before Mr. R. E. Lindell at the Magistrate's Court this morning.

Mr. Fisher at the outset explained that Mr. Hamilton had in a previous case, instructed him to charge, both the buyer and the seller as being equally responsible in fixing this responsibility.

In both cases it was found that neither the sellers nor the purchasers were actually responsible and the charges were dismissed on the ground of insufficient evidence.

Ip Tung-sang, holder of Stall No. 56, Central Market, was defended by Mr. Leo d'Almada Castro in the first case. His fowls deposed that he bought three crates from Ip Lee Sang and the latter said that three crates were weighed and handed over to the coolie for delivery.

The Magistrate wished to know who actually engaged the coolies and it was explained that it was the customary practice to allow odd job coolies in the poultry market to handle the birds.

Inspector Fisher said that he found 66 and 53 fowls in two crates, respectively, the space for each bird being not more than a man's hand.

Mr. Lindell observed that the coolie must have taken the fowls out of one crate and put them in the other two to make an extra few cents by selling the odd crate.

Mr. H. C. Lee defended the Kwong Cheung "Lan", of 14 Centre Street and Cheung Shun-yan, master of the Wun Ngai Lau eating house, 4 Cochrane Street.

Inspector Fisher said that he counted, in the presence of the second defendant, 68 fowls in one crate. One was dead.

Cheung, in the witness box, deposed that he bought two crates of poultry from the Kwong Cheung firm, one crate containing capons and the other chickens.

Mr. Lee stated on behalf of the first defendant that, as wholesalers, they merely sold the poultry on a commission basis and had nothing to do with the packing.

Mr. Lindell dismissed the summons on the ground that there was no evidence against either defendant and advised Inspector Fisher to add the coolies' names to the charge sheet in future.

"SUI AN" PIRACY.

HOW SEARCH WAS MADE FOR THE MISSING VESSEL.

A correspondent who saw himself "Fairplay" writes to answer reflection cast upon the Macao Steamboat Company's efforts to locate the missing "Sui An." He reports the insinuation that the Company failed to do everything possible and suggests confusion may have arisen in some people's minds by reason of the fact that there are three Cheung Chau Islands—Dumbell Island, Leung and Si.

The "Huangshan," he understands, after lying ready all night, left Hong Kong on Monday morning to search for the missing "Sui An," visiting the vicinity of Cheung Chau (Dumbell Island) where she met a police launch, which reported however, that it had seen nothing of the overdue vessel. Inquiry among the junks met in this vicinity also brought the same answer. The "Huangshan" was off Cheung Chau (Leung), he learns, when she met the largest Macao warship the "Patria" engaged on a similar mission incidentally showing that the Macao Government took prompt measures to locate the overdue steamer. The Portuguese vessel had hitherto failed to find the "Patria" and it was agreed that the "Patria" should search southward and the "Huangshan" northward. Following this arrangement the "Huangshan" visited the southward islands and then eastward round Lantau northward to the Brothers and then westward to the entrance of Swatow. Here she met a customs patrol also searching for the "Sui An." After the Kilo Islands had been searched and it was clear the missing vessel was nowhere in this region, the "Huangshan" returned to Hongkong coming through the passage to the north of Lantau and reaching here at six o'clock in the evening.

This, our correspondent declares, proves conclusively that both the company and the Macao Government made every possible effort to find the "Sui An." In addition to the contrary he says, are barely false.

Two Chinese were charged at the Magistrate's Court this morning with obtaining 500 bags of flour (since recovered) from the Sang Loong and Kwai Poak firms by means of a false chop.

Mr. M. H. Turner was for the prosecution and Mr. A. E. Hall, appeared for the first defendant. Mr. Lindell fixed the hearing for next Wednesday. Bail was granted on the application of Mr. Hall in the sum of $1,000, for each defendant.

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY.

The decision to revive the local Philharmonic Society resulted in a meeting at the C. Theatrical Hall last evening, presided over by Mr. C. E. H. Bevan.

He said that it had been decided at a preliminary meeting to ask H. E. the Governor to become Patron of the Society and the Hon. Mr. Seymour, President. The Joint Jointure, the Commander, Mr. J. Owen Hughes, Mrs. Perkins, Mr. N. L. Smith, Mr. E. J. Chapman, Mr. E. Ralph and Mr. Bevan were to act as Vice-Presidents. Mr. Temple Bevan (conductor), Mr. Eric Rice (pianist), Mr. William H. Smith (hon. treasurer) and Mr. J. A. Bullock (hon. secretary) were proposed as members of the Committee by the Chairman and accepted by Mr. C. Edgecombe.

Mr. Temple Bevan mentioned that Monday nights were the only nights available for practice and in view of there being so many social functions between now and Christmas he suggested that the practices should start in January.

However, the meeting seemed to favour an earlier start and ultimately decided to call the first practice for December 4.

The members' subscription was fixed nominally at $1.

EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP FOR GIRLS.

At a recent meeting of the Education Board Mr. N. Teesdale Mackintosh moved that the Government should be recommended to grant a scholarship in Education at the Hongkong University for girl candidates from all the schools in the Colony, to be awarded on the results of the matriculation examinations held each November. The resolution was unanimously carried and the recommendation has already been adopted by the Government with the result that an announcement giving particulars of the scholarship appears amongst to day's advertisements.

WORLD THEATRE.

"EASTWARD HO!"

Those who love to see the best spirit of the West, in a photoplay should not miss "Eastward Ho!" which opens to-night at the World Theatre. William Russell has made one of his greatest hits in this thrilling Fox picture especially in the big fight which he puts up against New York ruffians in a righteous cause. In addition to this beautiful drama, the latest Topical Budget news will also be screened in which some very interesting recent events in Europe will be seen.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Inquiries made over the telephone this afternoon established that the wounded victims of the "Sui An" piracy at present in hospital are all making satisfactory progress.

The master of the s.s. "Chiokua," which has just arrived from Shanghai reports that near lat. 22. 20' and long. 115. 07 E he passed a diu ad junk which was awash and a danger to navigation.

Mr. Wong Po-chen, interpreter to Messrs. D'Almada and Mason, has reported to the Police that yesterday he handed the office boy a cheque for $3,700 to be paid into his account with the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation. The boy cashed the cheque and then absconded.

The marriage of Miss Isabel Winifred Clark, daughter of Colonel W. H. Clark, D.D., to Mr. Raymond Henry Peel Rees, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rees, was solemnized by the Very Rev. Dean C. J. T. Symonds on the afternoon of November 15 in Holy Trinity Cathedral, Shanghai, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion in green and white.

Two Chinese were charged at the Magistrate's Court this morning with obtaining 500 bags of flour (since recovered) from the Sang Loong and Kwai Poak firms by means of a false chop.

Mr. M. H. Turner was for the prosecution and Mr. A. E. Hall, appeared for the first defendant. Mr. Lindell fixed the hearing for next Wednesday. Bail was granted on the application of Mr. Hall in the sum of $1,000, for each defendant.

Chen Ping-sung, who was President of the Chinese Sam N's Union during the strike in Hongkong, has been elected president of the Shanghai branch of the Union.

It will be remembered, was sentenced to 12 years' imprisonment by the Canton law courts for murdering his wife and attempting to shoot a policeman who tried to effect his arrest. He was subsequently pardoned by Dr. Sun Yat-sen when the latter was Extraordinary President and went to Hongkong. From here he was banished by the authorities.

INTERPORT TENNIS.

HONGKONG WIN DOUBLES.

The first match in the Interport Tennis Tournament was played yesterday afternoon between Ng Sze Kwong and Li T. Com. Worthington representing Hongkong; and J. Elmore and R. D. Canavaro representing Shanghai. The match resulted in a win for the home player by 3 sets to 2, the scores being 7-5, 5-7, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2. There was a large crowd of spectators including H.E. the Governor (Sir R. E. Stubbs K.C.M.G.), the Hon. Mr. Claud Sav. R. C.M.G., Mrs. Severn, Mrs. Bullock and many other prominent persons.

THE GAME.
Shanghai were the better balanced pair and for a long time looked like winning. Ng Sze Kwong stood out as the best player of the four and it was his brilliancy in the final set that won the match for the home combination. The Shanghai pair played on Worthington as much as possible and he got more than his share of the work to do. He placed beautifully at times and showed some pretty forearm drives down the side lines but his back hand was weak and he failed many times at the net. However he had flashes of brilliancy which critical games and his share of the victory must not be overlooked. Elmore's service was good and he has a variety of pretty shots but he fell off badly in the final set. Canavaro on the other hand was good all through. He was very clever at the net and his volleying was a feature of the match. In the second and third sets especially, he was brilliant.

FIRST SET—HONGKONG 7-5.
Worthington took first service and the match began very slowly. All four played very carefully and no risks were taken. Shanghai won the first two games and the local pair the third and fourth making it two all. There was a lot of base line play and matters continued very even until the score was five all. The next game was also very evenly contested, being called twice and Hongkong managed to win after a couple of pretty shots by the champion. The twelfth game gave the set to the local pair 7-5 with a love game from Canavaro's service. Both Ng Sze Kwong and his partner played well in this game and were applauded for pretty strokes.

SECOND SET—SHANGHAI 7-5.
Elmore started badly in this set and Shanghai were lucky to win the first two games. Hongkong claimed the third and then the Shanghai pair took matters in hand and won three more games comfortably making the score 5-1 in favour of the visitors. Worthington was now seen at his best and as a result of some pretty placing by him and some clever work by his partner at the net, they won four games in succession making the score 5 all. Elmore now came into the picture again and with Canavaro volleying well the visitors won the next two games and the set 7-5.

THIRD SET—SHANGHAI 6-4.
Worthington continued to show good form and Hongkong went ahead at the start at one time leading 1-4 four games to one. However after this point the visitors wakened up and showed what they really could do winning five games in succession and taking the set by 6 games to 4. This was a surprise as the home pair seemed to have come to a better understanding and to be able to win.

GODOWNS ROBBED

A report has been made to the Police by Mr. Davies, manager of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. to the effect that some person broke into their godown at Canton Road, Yau-mat, and stole from it seven sewing machine heads valued at $419. Mr. P. Carval o, of Messrs. Andersen Meyer and Co. reported to the police that their godown at Canton Road has been broken into by thieves who removed some tiles from the roof. Three cases of pig bristles valued at $916 were removed.

DON'T BE DISCOURAGED

by Constipation. No matter how stubborn, it can be permanently overcome if treated in the right way. First, cleanse the intestinal canal by taking a small dose of Pinkettes, the tiny, candy-coated laxatives. Then watch your diet. Fresh fruit, vegetables, a sufficient dose of water consumed daily, and an occasional dose of Pinkettes when necessary, will do the rest.

Pinkettes are laxative perfection, and a proved remedy for biliousness, flatulence, liver troubles, indigestion, constipation, and all ailments connected with the bowels. They are sold by all chemists, or post free at 40 cents the box from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 90 South Second Street, New York.

FOURTH SET—HONGKONG 6-4.

Shanghai seemed now to have found their form and looked as if they would run out easy winners. The home pair, however surprised everyone by making a wonderful recovery. Ng Sze Kwong especially playing at the top of his form. Hongkong took the first two sets and in the third they were leading 4-15 and should have won it. The score went from 2 all to 5-2 when Shanghai began to recover and took two games playing confidently. Worthington played very well in the ninth and tenth games and was instrumental in pulling off the set 6-4 making the score two sets all.

FIFTH SET—HONGKONG 6-2.
The Hongkong pair never looked back now and were playing much better. Ng Sze Kwong won the first game from his own service almost single handed and right through the set dominated the play. Hongkong led 5-1 and then Shanghai got a game making the score 5-2. The next game, however, settled the match. There was a lot of lobbing and the Shanghai pair seemed uncomfortable. Ng Sze Kwong got several fast ones across and beat Elmore on two occasions the Shanghai player putting the last stroke of the match into the net and the local pair thus winning 6-2, and taking the match by 3 sets to 2.

P. & O. MEETING.

LORD INCHCAPE'S IMPORTANT SPEECH.

Lord Inchcape, presiding on October 18 at the annual meeting of the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company, said the meeting had been called a few weeks earlier than usual as he had been in command of the Secretary of State and the Viceroy to the Chairman of the Indian Economy Committee, and he was leaving next day for Delhi. Incidentally, stockholders would get their dividend earlier. He felt he had acted rightly in obeying the summons of the Government to take up a duty which he hoped might lead to economy and an arrest of increased taxation in India.

SAFETY AT SEA.
Referring to the loss of the ship, "Egypt," by collision during fog, his lordship remarked that the Board had been called to the aid of technical advisers to guide them, and the regulations laid down by the directors were, as the Court stated, very complete. The record of the P. & O. and Associated Companies had provided for bad years and could carry on; but, meantime, they must try to get back to something more than making both ends meet. The Chancellor of the Exchequer was, he continued, manfully grappling with the public expenditure; and the country looked to him to bring down taxation. The community wanted to be permitted, by saving again, to build up the wealth of the country for reproductive enterprise, and not squandered in Government offices or put into Government trading schemes involving disastrous loss.

AUSTRALIAN TRADE.
Five large new vessels for the Branch Service were now all in commission, and for their special service were second to none. Last year this service was able to fill only 30 per cent. of its outward cargo space, and although things were now no better, they hoped for a revival in the Australian trade. Of the enormous stock of Government wool in Australia, the last of the New Zealand wool had, under a contract made soon after the Armistice by their lines and others, been transported; the last of the Australian wool would not be shipped before the spring. He mentioned this because in the report of the Government Control of Commerce Committee, just issued, the following passage occurred: "As shipping is the generally acknowledged basis of the wool trade, the highest rates, the present is an opportune occasion to state that the treatment received by the British Australian Wool Realisation Association, Limited, from the contractors has been most considerate in respect of freight rates and particularly in respect of the extension of the period for the shipment of wool stored in Australia."

ADVERSE TRADE CONDITIONS.
Many of their voyages had been an adverse result. Outward freight had been scarce; home freight had been a great extent unimportant; operating expenses had continued far in excess of the pre-war level. The strike of ship-repairers, ended by an acceptance of the masters' terms, had involved them in serious difficulties, and ships had consequently had to go to sea with dirty hulls, or, in some cases, to be docked at a dockyard at Continental ports, where money was spent in labour and material instead of in London. They had raised three and a half millions by Debenture issue on favourable terms for now construction. These Debentures, chiefly taken up by their own stockholders, had considerably increased in value. The new Debentures were redeemable not later than 1910, as they had set aside an initial sum of $20,000 towards the sinking fund; they had, besides, written off the discount and expense of issue, about £192,000. They had obtained authority under a supplementary charter for a further three and a half millions of Debentures, but had no immediate intention of making the issue. Although the insurance account had not gone so well as in the last year, they had increased the amount at credit by £24,242 7s. 11d., bringing it to £3,094,242 7s. 11d.

Recently in reply to a question by Sir Eric Giddens, he had said that shipping was doing badly. Sir Eric's caustic reply was: "Oh, I suppose you will be paying your dividend out of your losses." It had not come to that; their associated companies had helped, materially, their "conservative" policy had assured a handsome sum from their investments; and the directors felt justified in proposing dividends of 5 per cent. on Preference Stock, less tax, and 12 per cent. on Deferred Stock, tax-free. The recent Debenture issue of £3,800,000 falls to be re-paid at par not later than 1940, and it will be noticed from the accounts a sinking fund has been started to September 30 last the sum of $70,000 to its credit. They had also written off to this year's account the amount of £100,000, about £100,000. They proposed to add to the sinking fund yearly and to invest the money in Stock Exchange securities so that when the day for redemption arrives the money will be there.

Although there were signs of a break in the clouds they had apparently a poor year or two ahead. Operating costs must come down to secure an equilibrium, or disaster must follow. Fortunately the P. & O. and Associated Companies had provided for bad years and could carry on; but, meantime, they must try to get back to something more than making both ends meet. The Chancellor of the Exchequer was, he continued, manfully grappling with the public expenditure; and the country looked to him to bring down taxation. The community wanted to be permitted, by saving again, to build up the wealth of the country for reproductive enterprise, and not squandered in Government offices or put into Government trading schemes involving disastrous loss.

At the conclusion of the chairman's speech, Mr. A. H. Hastie mentioned the inconvenience caused to passengers when a company's boat arrives late at Plymouth, and so misses the fast train to London. He suggested that at a very low cost a special train could be easily obtained. Lord Inchcape said that considerable improvement had been made during the last few years, and that every endeavour was made to see that boats arrived to time at Plymouth in order to catch the two o'clock afternoon express to London, and that special attention would be paid to Mr. Hastie's remarks. Another complaint Mr. Hastie had was that the P. & O. Company charged the prices of a first class London restaurant, and, whereas the restaurant had to pay duty, the company did not. The chairman said that very little profit was made out of the sale of wines, etc., after taking into account ullage, breakages, of bottles, and the amount of wine which is destroyed through varying changes of climate. Mr. Hastie, in referring to the necessity of having a bat drill on board, said he thought that better efficiency could be obtained, and that the captain should be able to bring passengers to the attention of the captain's knowledge that they would have the full support and sympathy of the company. Lord Inchcape agreed that the utmost precautions should be taken, and that passengers should be made to understand that boat drill was, after all, for their own benefit.

Mr. G. Grinnell-Milne then inquired of the chairman some particulars regarding the accounts, to which Lord Inchcape satisfactorily replied. The motion was passed unanimously, the dividend recommended was declared, and Mr. Ernest Cunard and Lord Chalmers, having retired, Mr. G. F. Hotblack, Mr. F. C. Allen and Sir John Pender were elected directors of the Board. A vote of thanks was given to the chairman, directors and staff, on the motion of Sir Forbese Flannery, seconded by Mr. Grinnell-Milne.

BOXING.

FIRST TOURNAMENT OF THE SEASON.

It is announced that the Hongkong Boxing Association will hold its first tournament for the season in the Theatre Royal on Friday December 1, at 8.15 p.m.

The main event will be a 15 rounds contest for the welterweight championship and the Daily Press belt between Stoker P. O. Morgan of the "Hawkins" and A. B. Dixon of the "Cleat". The other bouts will include a 10 round light-weight contest between P. E. Flynn and A. B. McBride, a 10 round welter weight contest between L. J. Stoker Hector and Sgt. T. H. and three six-round contests. Booking opens at Moutrie's for members on November 23 and for non-members on November 29.

"THE TEMPEST."

THE A.D.C.'S FORTHCOMING PRODUCTION.

The A.D.C. announces for its Christmas production Shakespeare's "The Tempest."

This is a very happy choice for the coming festive season, as "The Tempest" is Shakespeare's great play of fancy and magic. Stress will be laid on this side of the piece in the local production rather than on sumptuous settings and display.

No doubt many will remember Sir Herbert Tree's last production some years ago at "His Majesty's," but we are not told to expect any attempt at similar methods in the A.D.C.'s conception.

A strong healthy reaction recently set in against superfluity of scenery at performances of Shakespeare's plays and the forthcoming production is framed on lines not unlike the memorable one of "Twelfth Night" in 1913 here when the sets served as a decorative background only and Shakespeare's text was closely adhered to. By dividing the play into two parts with one interval only during the evening, it is possible to present the play almost unabridged within the time-limit of two hours.

It will certainly rank as the A.D.C.'s most ambitious production within recent years.

Booking opens at Moutrie's on the morning of December 1, and although the production will be a very costly one, prices will be "as usual."

"The wharves were the chief meeting places of the sailors. There they would gather, puffing their pipes of rich Virginia tobacco, the while telling merry tales of foreign ports."

—Old Virginia Days.

Rollicking Days in Old Virginia

Those hardy tars liked the zesty flavor of Virginia tobacco. Starting from Jamestown, Virginia tobacco taught all the world the pleasure of smoking. Originally no other tobacco was cultivated.

Today there are many tobaccos; but, for cigarettes, Virginia is still the best liked. Virginia's golden sunshine and rich soil produce an appetizing freshness and a zesty taste that other tobaccos lack.

And in Old Mill cigarettes you smoke golden Virginia tobacco at its best. Try them today.
